

PRINCELY INDIA

9 Days / 8 Nights

Day 1

Delhi

On arrival into Delhi you will be met and transferred to your hotel for a 2-night stay.

Accommodation – 2 nights – Delhi

The Oberoi (5 Star Deluxe)

Dr. Zakir Hussain Marg,

New Delhi - 110003 India

Telephone: +91 11 2436 3030

Facsimile: +91 11 2436 0484

The luxurious Oberoi, New Delhi is centrally located and overlooks the prestigious Delhi Golf Club. The hotel is in close proximity to the commercial and shopping districts and has a reputation for service, award-winning cuisine, and elegant accommodation. Its spacious rooms and suites, completely refurbished, feature state of the art facilities for discerning business travellers. An exclusive feature is the 24 hr personalized butler service.

Day 2

Delhi

A full day city tour today will introduce you to Delhi, including an exhilarating bicycle rickshaw ride through Chandni Chowk - a hustling & bustling market place and a maze of narrow streets. Visits will be made to:

- Jama Masjid – an architectural extravaganza of Shah Jahan, with its vast marble domes and minarets. The largest mosque in India, this is a handsome structure that is still used today
- Raj Ghat – where the Father of India, Mahatama Gandhi, was cremated in 1948
- Qutab Minar – an 11th century, 73-metre high victory tower built by slave king Qutubuddin Aibak and later completed by his successor Iltumish.

You will also drive past India Gate, Parliament House, and the President's House. If time permits, a visit will be made to a Sikh Temple. Overnight Delhi. B

Day 3

Delhi-Agra 200kms – 4 hrs drive

Drive to Agra this morning. This afternoon visit the Agra Fort, the original red sandstone fort built by Akbar in 1565. Shahjahan added the marble palaces inside. Inside the fort is a famous pure marble mosque, the Moti Masjid. Explore the colourful local bazaar, and also see the intricate work of marble inlaid with fine gemstones, which is unique to Agra.

Then late afternoon you will be taken to experience the ethereal beauty of the Taj Mahal – symbol of love – at sunset. Overnight Agra. B

Note that the Taj Mahal is closed on Fridays.

An immense mausoleum of white marble, built in Agra between 1631 and 1648 by order of the Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his favourite wife, the Taj Mahal is the jewel of Muslim art in India and one of the universally admired masterpieces of the world's heritage.

Accommodation – 1 night – Agra

The Oberoi Amarvilas – 5 star deluxe

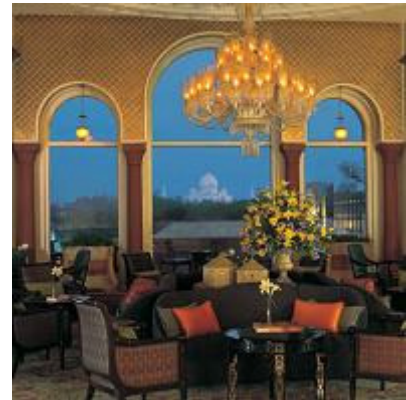

Taj East Gate Road

Agra 282 001

Tel: +91 562 223 1515

Fax: +91 562 223 1516

"...uninterrupted views of the Magnificent Taj Mahal..."

The Oberoi Amarvilas is a member of the Great Hotels of the World, a collection of the world's finest luxury hotels. Each of the 105 luxurious rooms and suites of this unique hotel has a view of the glorious monument. The Oberoi Amarvilas reflects its grandeur with terraced gardens, reflection pools and tastefully decorated interiors.

Mogul arches, domes and fountains complement the palace – offering superb views of the Taj Mahal, one of the Seven Wonders of the World. All guest rooms have teak floors, hand-knotted carpets, fine handcrafted furniture and luxurious marble bathrooms with separate shower stalls.

The amenities seem endless: a luxury spa with a range of therapies, a swimming pool beset by luxury sundeck chairs where snacks and drinks are served; an ornamented ballroom and a superb restaurant framing that most romantic vista in the world.

Day 4

Agra-Jaipur via Fatehpur Sikri 235kms

Drive to Jaipur this morning, stopping en route to explore Fatehpur Sikri – the deserted red sandstone city built by Emperor Akbar as his capital in the late 16th Century. On to the magnificent Pink City of Jaipur, where you will spend 3 nights. B

Jaipur, the vibrant capital of Rajasthan is popularly known as the 'Pink City' because of the pink-coloured buildings in its old city. It sits on a dry lakebed in a somewhat arid landscape surrounded by forts and palaces. The walled old city is in the northeast of Jaipur, the new parts spread to the south and west.

Jaipur offers a combination of splendid sightseeing and shopping opportunities. If Jaipur is a dream city for those with an eye for history and romance, it is also a shopper's paradise. The main tourist attractions are in the old city, and the principal shopping centre is Johari Bazaar, the jewellers' market.

The City owes its name, its foundation and its careful planning to the great warrior-astronomer Maharaja Jai Singh II. In 1728, he built the remarkable observatory, Jantar Mantar, which is still one of Jaipur's main attractions.

Day 5

Jaipur

Enjoy an elephant ride up to the Amber Fort this morning, and also visit the Palace, Kali Temple and Jai Mahal.

An afternoon city tour of Jaipur will include visiting The City Palace, Palace of Winds, Jai Singh's Observatory and of course shopping in the Pink City. B

Accommodation – 2 nights – Jaipur
