Tour Cost $2199 Per Person Land Only – 5% discount if booked by 30 July 2011

Departing 18 September 2011

Explore some of the lesser known places of Turkey on this excellent 13 day/12 night tour, staying in some charming little hotels in small villages. Some of the highlights of this tour are:

- The famous Cappadocia region with its amazing rock formations including “fairy chimneys”, beautiful frescoed cave churches hewn into the tufa sandstone, and underground cities.
- The picturesque city of Antalya with its ancient Roman walled port, and the lovely ‘old town’, Kaleici, with its beautifully restored Ottoman mansions and Hadrian’s Gate.
- The impressive ruins – including an amphitheatre and a gymnasium – of Termessos.
- The very pretty site of Phaselis with its ruins and 3 harbours set amidst pine trees
- The fascinating ruins of Olympos; the mysterious eternal flames of Chimaera
- Arykanda, a spectacular Lycian city dramatically set high on the mountain, built upon five large terraces ascending a mountain slope
- Demre with its Church and statue of St. Nicholas – Santa Claus, and site of many splendidly carved Lycian Rock Tombs overlooking an amphitheatre, all-dating back to 600 B.C.
- Kekova, a peaceful group of picturesque islands well scattered with very distinct rock sarcophagi, some even out in the sea.
- Saklikent – the hidden gorge – a long (18kms) and narrow water-sculpted limestone canyon.
- Aphrodisias, one of the most beautiful ancient sites in Turkey.
- The charming little village of Sirince
- Ephesus, which was undoubtedly one of the most important cultural centres of the ancient world.
- The hauntingly beautiful Pergamon, once one of the richest and most powerful small kingdoms in the Middle East.
- Assos, considered the prettiest small harbour in the northern Aegean.

Tour concludes in Istanbul, you can take an extension to Istanbul, Antalya or Eastern Turkey after this tour.
